

CV Koniaris Eythimios

Pathologist

In 2001 he graduated from the 'Albert Szent Gyorgyi' Medical School, Szeged, Hungary and then he followed the specialty of Pathology. He worked at 'Henry Dunant Hospital' and since 2018 He is a Consultant in the Pathology Laboratory of the 'Hippocraton' General Hospital of Athens. He is a PhD Candidate in the Medical School of NKUA. He has participated in 81 postgraduate events (Hospital Courses, Seminars, Workshops, etc.) focusing on pathology and oncology. In 2011-2012 he participated in the S.H.I.P.S. International Program aiming to establish an electronic medical record-archive of the residents of Serifos Island, an initiative funded by the Empiricos and Kennedy Institutes. He is a member of the Hellenic Society of Pathologists, the European Society of Pathologists, the Medical Society of Athens, and the Hellenic Cancer Society